

JAY DARIN

INSTRUCTOR/SPECIAL AGENT

PERSONAL PROFILE

JAY DARIN has been a Special Agent with the FBI for over 23 years. He is a Cum Laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, with a Bachelor in Business Administration/Accounting. As the FBI's Active Shooter Coordinator for the State of Wisconsin, Jay built, coordinated and currently manages a statewide active shooter response training program for both first responders (Law Enforcement, Fire and EMS) and civilians.

In 2017, Jay developed and initiated the annual Wisconsin Active Threat Integrated Response Conference. He is now the Chairperson for that conference, which has become the largest integrated conference held in Wisconsin. Since 2013, SA Darin has trained more than 6,000 first responders and countless civilians in active shooter response tactics and active shooter incident management. SA Darin has taught nationally and even internationally, leading a team of FBI personnel who provided active shooter response training to law enforcement officers in Brazilia, Brazil in September 2019.
