

JON DROLLINGER

TRAINING OFFICER (LE)

INSTRUCTOR, NCIER

PROFILE

JON DROLLINGER brings eighteen years of law enforcement experience. Jon started his career in patrol, and has served in numerous roles in the Madison Police Department. These assignments include deploying as a grenadier for the special events team, a field training officer, and a narcotics undercover officer for approximately four years. He has been an active member of the SWAT team for the last fourteen years.

Jon is currently certified by MPD as a Master Instructor in Tactical Response, Scenario Instruction, and Instructor Development. Jon leads advanced training initiatives throughout the department, including Madison's Pre-Service Academy. Over the last few years, Jon has been serving as the lead instructor for his department's Active Killer program and in 2026 received the MPD Outstanding Service Award for his work with this program. He is also a state-certified instructor in defense and arrest tactics, firearms, and professional communications. Jon holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Illinois.
